$35.00 Range GIVEN AWAY

To the lady who secures the largest number of votes I will give a $35 Steel Range Stove. Election opens Aug. 1, 1911, and closes Jan. 1, 1912. Any lady may enter the race for this great prize who wishes to, by having her name registered as a candidate, on the ballot box at any time before Oct. 15. A 25c purchase of merchandise for strictly cash entitles the customer to a vote. Those wishing to enter the race please come in early and register your name as a candidate, then get busy asking your friends to come to my store and buy what they need in good merchandise and cast their votes for you. Be sure to vote at the time you do your trading.

I Carry a General Line

I will carry a large stock of merchandise this Fall in most all lines, such as Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Dry Goods, Notions, Hardware, Stoves, Tinware and Queensware, Groceries, etc., and all of the best quality. I will sell a guaranteed line of clothing and shoes, goods I will stand behind. Do not fail to see my goods and prices before you buy.

Three Bargain Counters

Be sure and see my 5c, 10c and 25c bargain counters as most of the goods are worth double the price at other stores. Call and see me. I am always hungry for trade.

SENATE BILL NO. 773

Chapter 589

An Act to authorize the Counties of Putnam, De Kalb and Smith, by a majority vote of the Quarterly County Courts of each County, to issue bonds of each County not to exceed six thousand dollars, for the purpose of building a bridge across Caney Fork River.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee: That the County Courts of Putnam, DeKalb and Smith Counties, as hereinafter provided, be, and they are by a majority vote of all the Justices of said County participating, a quorum being present, each authorized to issue bonds of their respective counties not to exceed six thousand dollars each, said bonds to be due and payable in thirty years from date of issuance, and are to bear interest at a rate not to exceed four and one-half per centum per annum, payable annually on the first of July of each year, for the purpose of building a bridge across Caney Fork River at a point on said river just above where the bridge of the Tennessee Central Railroad Company now crosses said river and at or near the line between the Counties of Putnam and DeKalb, on the east side of said river, together with the necessary approaches at each end of said bridge so as to accommodate the traveling public, and said bridge so erected to be the joint property of Putnam, DeKalb and Smith Counties, they paying equal amounts for the erection of the same and for the keeping of the same in repair.

SECTION 2. Be it further enacted, That each of Quarterly County Courts of said Counties shall at their July quarterly term of each county vote on the issuance of said bonds and should any of the counties aforesaid fail at said terms by a majority of all the Justices of said County to vote said bonds, said Quarterly County Courts aforesaid within six months from said date be required to take another vote for said purpose, provided, the same shall be asked for by the tax payers of said County by a petition in writing, and signed by citizens of said County representing as much as $12,000.00 in taxable property in said County.

SECTION 3. Be it further enacted, That each of said counties may be required to take said vote within six months from any preceding vote, provided they are petitioned as in the preceding chapter.

SECTION 4. Be it further enacted, That if all of said counties at any Quarterly Term of County Court as above provided vote the issuance of said bonds then said bonds may be put upon the market and sold to the highest and best bidder by a commission of three which shall be composed of the several County Judges, or Chairmen of said counties, but no sale of said bonds is to be made for less than par.

SECTION 5. Be it further enacted, That after said bonds shall have been issued, that the Quarterly County Courts of each of said counties levy an assessment of a sufficient amount upon the assessable property of their respective counties, for the payment of the interest on said bonds, and of a sufficient amount to create a sinking fund for the purpose of liquidating said bonds at their maturity, and said sinking fund when collected shall be invested or loaned by each of said counties so that the same will bear interest at a rate not less than four and one-half per cent. per annum.

SECTION 6. Be it further enacted, That the County Judges and Chairmen of each of said counties shall be and constitute the committee to let the contract for the building of said bridge, and they shall have full power to make such contracts for estimates and for all other purposes, as may be necessary to build and erect a good and substantial bridge across said river not to cost exceeding $18,000.00, and shall submit quarterly reports of the expenditures on same to each of their County Courts, which reports shall be spread upon the minutes of said Courts.

SECTION 7. Be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act take effect from and after its passage, the public welfare requiring it.
